

Caring Capital Logo Wins Design Award!

We are excited to announce that our new logo recently won an award of excellence from Graphic Design USA, the biggest showcase for outstanding work by designers. The creative services team at New York Life Investments designed the logo, donating their time through a company program called "Volunteers for Good." Out of 4,000 design entries, 600 received certificates of excellence and one of those awards was for Caring Capital.

