Team-building that's more than just team-building.

Belonging to a team makes people feel they are part of something bigger than themselves. Individuals feel a sense of corporate camaraderie when they work together to achieve a specific goal. Let us help shape an event that makes employees feel good about themselves, their contributions to neighbors in need and the organization that employs them.

You will see the benefits both in the workplace and in the community.

Companies that include team-building in their corporate culture have greater success. Caring Capital will help facilitate:

Talent Management Events

- On-boarding New Hires
- Learning & Leadership Development
- Executive Summits
- Training Coaches / HR Managers
- Engaging Interns

Business Events

- Sales Meetings
- Town Halls
- ERG Gatherings
- Annual Meetings
- Mergers

Employee Special Events

- Day / Month of Service
- Diversity Day
- Family Day
- Take Your Children to Work Day
- Holiday Celebrations

Let's create an experience!

Step 1: How Many People Total In Your Group?

We can create a customized event for a group of any size, but it's helpful for us to know how many people you'll have so we can ensure you and your team get the most out of the experience. What kind of group will be participating in your event?

Choose a total group size:

Step 2: How Much Time Do You Have?

In order to maximize efficacy and get the most out of your event, it's important to know how much time you and your group have. We'll ensure that each second of the experience is properly used and your team remains engaged. Pairing one of our events with a larger meeting? Not a problem. We'll be responsible for your team's schedule and get them where they need to be.

Choose a timeframe:

Step 3: Who Would You Like to Help?

The gifts your employees make will immediately benefit nonprofit organizations that help people at risk or in need. We'll connect you with nonprofit partners that resonate with your organization's mission and we've grouped our projects into categories based on how the recipients will use each gift. Explore our projects on the following pages and if you see a project that doesn't exactly match up to your team size and the amount of time you have, don't worry! We'll find something or create a custom project just for you.

Display It

Animal Clock

Bring a wooden animal to life by sanding, assembling and painting it in vibrant hues. Insert a clock to make it a fun time keeper. Rhinos, hippos, elephants and giraffes. (Roughly 11"w x 9"h x 4"d)

Suggested Time: 1.5h Suggested Team Size: 1 person

Communal Collage: Hearts, Stars, Houses or Healthy Eating

Results that extend far beyond the conference room.

Caring Capital was founded on the premise that team-building and corporate social responsibility can and should be one and the same. With a Caring Capital event, your employees will engage, connect and create to make gifts that have an immediate impact on neighbors in need.

We maintain relationships and connect you to nonprofit partners. There are thousands of organizations in need, so if you don't have a specific group in mind, we'll help you find one!

It is comforting for our clients?

"Your act of kindness reinforces your understanding of our services, which strengthen and empower victims of domestic violence. It is comforting for our clients to know that members of our community care so deeply and are always ready to help. Thank you for helping to keep victims safe, offering them and their children a productive and brighter future."
