Volunteers make chairs for Head Start

Staff Report

PARSIPPANY — Fifteen A.J. O'Connor team members gathered last month to volunteer their time in support of Head Start of Morris County.

This was the inaugural event marking the human resources consulting firm's 30th anniversary year in business.

Family Service of Morris County, where AJO's president, Andy O'Connor, serves as a member of the Board of Managers, which hosted the event.

Guided by professional artists from Caring Capital, the AJO Team built and decorated six child-sized rocking chairs and one adult chair.

They then enhanced each one with accompanying pillows to ensure the children will have a cozy, comfortable place to sit and read in the newly renovated Head Start children's library.
